ABOUT FW22: For Fall 2022 Pamella Roland draws inspiration from the intricate designs of Peter Carl Fabergé's Imperial Eggs. Paying homage to their ornate designs, as well as Fabergé's revered craftsmanship, this seasons' collection is adorned with hand-beaded pearl and lattice embroideries, crystal floral appliques, three-dimensional tulle blossoms, elaborate golden lace, and hand hammered sequins that mimic the famed Eggs' enameled surfaces. These delicate details are met by a color palette of dreamy hues of autumnal pastels and a trove of jewel tones. Our repertoire of signature silhouettes has been expanded with streamlined columns, draped chiffon bodices, embroidered bustiers and impeccable tailoring.
